

I am opposed to lifting the ban on cross-ownership of media. It is essential to me to have as many points of view and ideas as possible in order to make decisions that make our demoncracy function. Without the proper protections for this type of interchange Americans will lose their independent voices. Thank you.